

How to Activate Read&Write toolbar in Google Chrome by Logging into Google from ClassLink

Step 1
Using Google Chrome navigate and log into classlink.agora.org

Step 2
Click the "Google SSO" Icon to automatically log into your Agora provided Google Account

Step 3
Click the circle icon in the top right of the browser. A profile menu will drop down, and then click "Turn on sync..."

Note - Once logged into Google on the web, Google Chrome will log you in automatically. This may take a moment.

Step 4
Click "Link data"

Step 5
Click "Yes, I'm in"

Step 6

Click the puzzle piece in the top right of the browser, then click the purple “Read&Write for Google Chrome” extension under Access requested

Step 7

The tool bar will now appear! However, you will need to allow permissions. In this pop up click your Agora Google account and then click “Allow” in the next pop up Success! You may now use the Read&Write toolbar in Google Chrome!
